

Personal Living Preferences

When you are pursuing or thinking about accepting a new job, your network and potential employers will expect you to have already decided whether the new opportunity is in alignment with your and your family’s personal living preferences.

Review each consideration listed below to find those you feel very strongly about. Add others not listed. Highlight those that are most important so you and your network are clear about what you will consider.

Preferences	Importance
	Very Imp.	← Mixed →	Not Imp.
Apartment
At or near mountains
At or near desert
At or near beach
Bustling community
Climate Dry
Climate Hot
Climate Wet
Close-knit community
Close to golf course
Close to lake or river
Close to park
Close to public transport
Close to sporting events
Close to theater/concerts
Close to work
Community of like ethnic/age group
Condominium
Cool climate
Cosmopolitan community
Easy access to airport
Families without children
Gated community
Good schools
House – stand-alone, separate, not attached to others
Medical proximity due to health issues
Mixed-use planned community
Near shopping mall
Property with a view
Property with stables
Quiet community
Rural area
Suburban area
Urban area
Walking distance to shopping mall
Young families					